

Fabri, Felix: Evagatorium in Terrae Sanctae, ..., ed. v. C.D. Hassler, Bd. 2, 1843, enthaltend fol. 183A–291B von Bd. 1 des Autographs (19 555-1) und fol. 2a–74a von
Bd. 2 des Autographs (19 555-2)

zu Bild Nr.

0837

0835

0841

0831

0846

0826

0886

0786

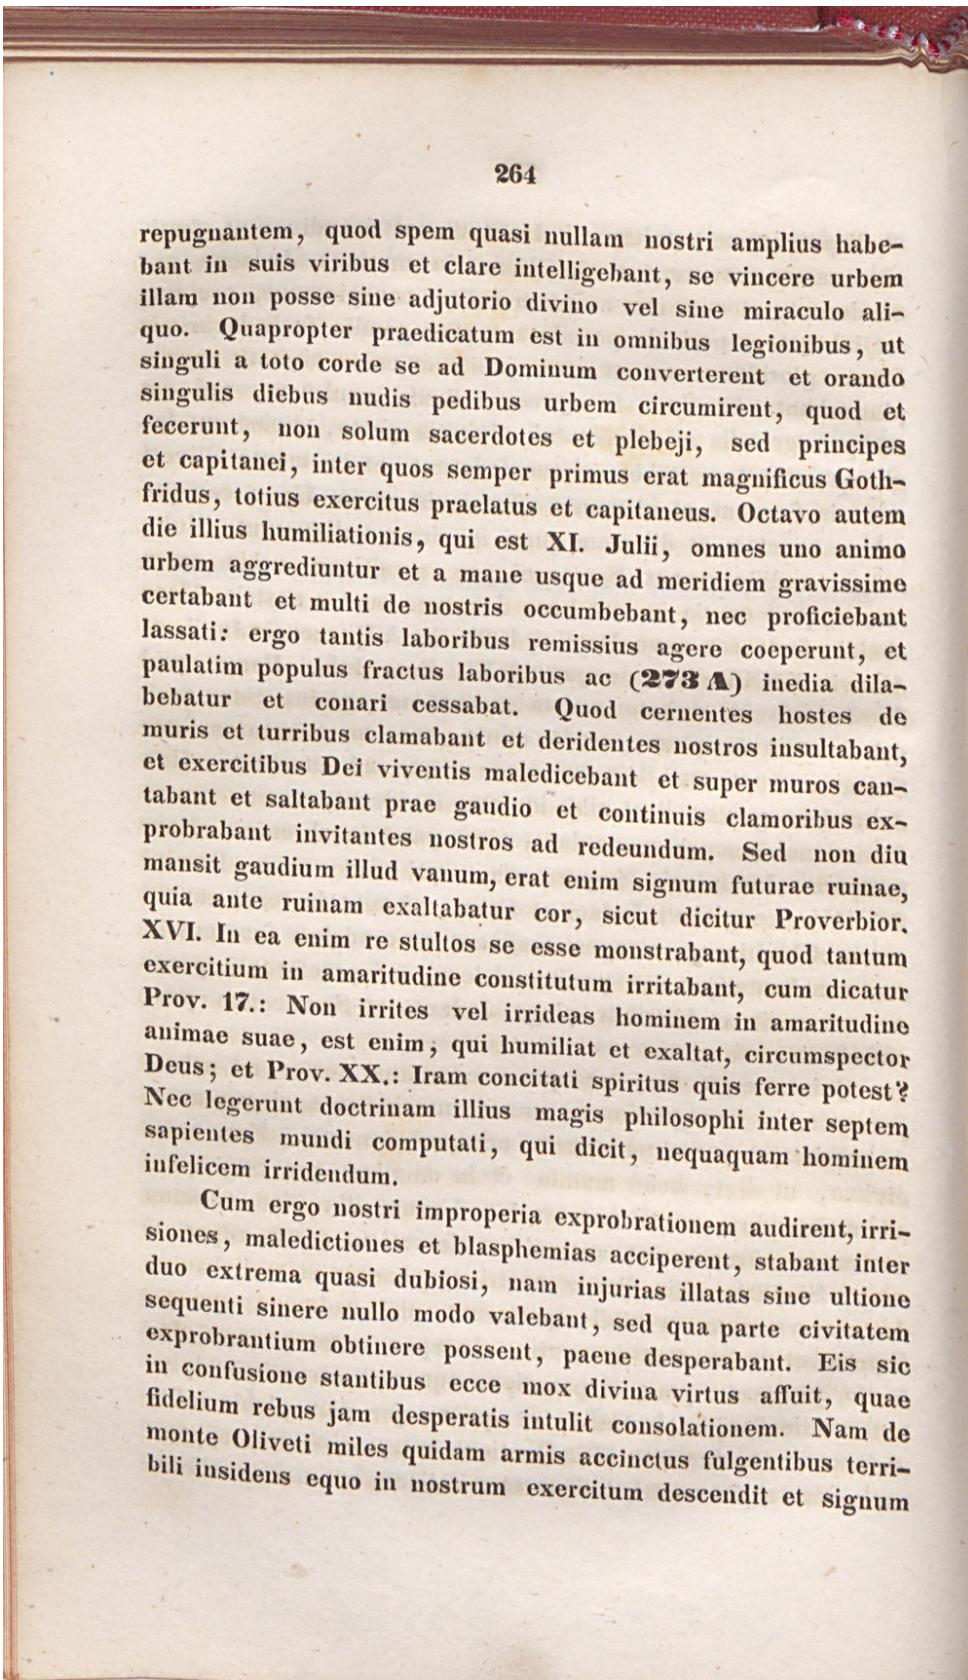

0936

0736

0336

Ende

Anfang

Cum ergo nostri improperia exprobationem audirent, irrisiones, maledictiones et blasphemias acciperent, stabant inter duo extrema quasi dubiosi, nam injurias illatas sine ultiōne sequenti sinere nullo modo valebant, sed qua parte civitatem exprobantium obtinere possent, paene desperabant. Eis sic in confusione stantibus ecce mox divina virtus affuit, quae fidelium rebus jam desperatis intulit consolationem. Nam de monte Oliveti miles quidam armis accinctus fulgentibus terribili insidens equo in nostrum exercitum descendit et signum