

Der vierdte Theil. Tenor.

The image shows a page from a 16th-century music book. At the top, it is titled 'Der vierdte Theil. Tenor.' The music is written on three staves. The first staff begins with a large, ornate initial 'K'. The lyrics are: 'Kuckuck/ kuckuck/ ij kuckuck/ kuckuck/ ij kuckuck/ er lacht auch'. The second staff continues with: 'drein/ nach seiner art/ dem Esel gfiels/ dem Esel gfiels/ ij er sagt/ nun wart/ ein vrtheil wil ich'. The third staff concludes with: 'sprechen/ ij ein vrtheil wil ich sprechen. ij'. Below the music are two sets of empty five-line staves. At the bottom center of the page, there is a small decorative symbol resembling a stylized 'E' or a similar character.
